IMPORT TRADE CONTROL

New Delhi, the 12th July 1967

SUBJECT.—Import Trade Control Hand Book of Rules & Procedure, 1967.

No. 61-ITC(PN)/67.—The Import Trade Control Hand Book of Rules and Procedure 1967 has been issued under the Ministry of Commerce Public Notice No. 57-ITC(PN)/67 dated 3rd July 1967.

2. The procedures for the submission of import applications have been further simplified and streamlined. The intending importers should read carefully the provisions contained in the said Hand Book.

3. The following are some of the important changes incorporated in the Hand Book:—

Relevant para No.
in the Hand Book

1. Simplified application forms have been devised for newspaper establishments and public sector undertakings, by deleting such of the columns from the existing forms as are not relevant to these categories. 8(2)
2. The scale of fees payable on import applications has been revised and made simpler. 10

	Relevant para in the Hand Book.
3. The IVC numbers have been made valid for 3 years instead of 2 years.	13(4)
4. The points on which an importer has to check up his licence immediately on receipt, have been indicated so that it may be possible for the importer to get any mistakes or omissions rectified before operating upon the licence.	26(xvii)
5. The basic period for the purpose of calculating the quota of established importers has been changed. The new basic period is from 1st April 1961 to 31st March 1966, for all items.	28
No quota/additional/supplementary licences will be granted to the established importers in the following cases:—	39
(i) Where the entitlement of the established importer at the quota percentage applicable to him, works out to Rs. 100/- or below; and
(ii) Where the value of past imports on which licence is claimed is up to Rs. 100/- in the case of items licensable to established importers at a quota of 25% or below, or upto Rs. 200/- in the case of items licensable at a quota of more than 25%
7. The minimum value of quota/additional/supplementary licences issued to established importers wherever admissible, will be Rs. 1,000/-, unless otherwise provided.	45
8. The procedure for the transfer of quotas of established importers has been simplified.	48 to 68.
9. The provisions regarding flexibility given to actual users in the use of their import licences for raw materials, components and spares have been revised. The scope of these provisions has been curtailed in so far as restricted and banned items are concerned. These provisions have also been made applicable to the import licences issued to actual users under the import policy for registered exporters.	84, 85, 111.
10. The value of emergency licences for import of spares to be issued to D.G.T.D. units has been raised to Rs. 10,000/-.	87
11. The procedure for considering applications for import of machinery and machine tools from D.G.T.D. units upto Rs. 16,000/- in value and from non-D.G.T.D. units (other than small scale) up to Rs. 8,000/- in value in each case has been simplified. (This simplified procedure is already in vogue in the case of small scale units for the import of machinery valued upto Rs. 8,000/- in each case).	119 (2) & 119 (6)
12. The procedure for the import of instruments, testing machines and weighing machines, laboratory equipment, tools & tackles has been brought at par with that of capital goods.	120
13. A separate chapter has been incorporated in the Hand Books containing the procedure for submission of applications by public sector undertakings and Government departments.	163 to 192
14. The procedure for the issue of replacement licence has been simplified and it will not now be obligatory on the importer to surrender the damaged or defective goods to the Customs authorities.	195 (4), 196 (3) 197 (3)
15. The procedure for the issue of letters of authority has been simplified.	216 & 223

SUBJECT.—Amendment to the Import Trade Control Hand Book of Rules and Procedure, 1967 (Amendment No. 2)

No. 62-ITC(PN)/67.—Attention is invited to sub-paragraph 45(1) in Chapter III of the Import Trade Control Hand Book of Rules and Procedure, 1967, issued under the Ministry of Commerce Public Notice No. 57-ITC(PN)/67 dated the 3rd July, 1967.

2. The word 'not' appearing in the aforesaid sub-paragraph (third line) may be deemed to have been deleted.

3. The Import Trade Control Hand Book of Rules and Procedure, 1967 shall stand amended accordingly.
